Adoption: Ways to Adopt.	93

The main content area shows the document 'Adoption: Ways to Adopt.' with a toolbar at the top containing icons for saving, printing, emailing, and other functions. The document text reads: 'CHAPTER 5 | ADOPTION | 93' followed by a paragraph: 'under which the parents are licensed as foster parents with the intention of adopting the child if reunification efforts aren't successful. It's also not uncommon for parental rights to be terminated in the process of a private or agency adoption, in which case the adopting parents would ask the court directly to end the parental rights of an absent father, for example.' Below this is a section header 'Ways to Adopt' and another paragraph: 'Adoptive families come together in different ways. There are public agencies and private agencies, and most counties offer adoption programs as well as foster-adopt procedures. You can also make an arrangement to adopt without using an agency at all. Each option has its good and bad points, so if you're considering adoption make sure you evaluate what's best for you.'
